USA Patriot Act Disclaimer

Patriot Act (Uniting and strengthening America by providing appropriate tools required to intercept and obstruct terrorism Act of 2001), passed by the US Congress on 26 October 2001 to prevent and combat terrorism, outlines guidelines intended to strengthen security and surveillance with a view to tackling the financing of terrorism and international money laundering. Patriot Act requires US intermediaries, or "covered financial institutions", to obtain from "foreign banks" with whom they hold correspondent accounts a series of information via "certification regarding correspondent accounts for foreign banks" which such banks are required to complete.

As a foreign bank as thus defined, and in order to comply with regulations in response to the requirements of US covered financial institutions, Mediobanca has provided the information requested by duly completing the relevant certification form which is available here in electronic format.
